BANK ROBBER IS KILLED

Henry Massey Is Slain and Two Pals Taken Near Atoka.

LOOT IS RECOVERED

Money Taken from Bromide Bank Seized by Posse in Fight.

KINTA BANK IS ROBBED

Bandits Get $10,000 in Liberty Bonds — No Clue Found by Searchers.

ATOKA, Okla., Dec. 27.—Henry Massey was shot and killed and his two companions, Dock Hayes and Chester Lane, were captured last night when Sheriff Sumpter of Atoka county, and Tom Hosmer, a special officer of the M. K. & T. railroad, crept upon their mountain rendezvous nine miles south of Atoka.

The officers met Massey just outside the door of his home. He reached for his revolver and both men fired.
He fell to the ground dead. Running into the house, the officers met the other two. Seizing their woman housekeeper and using her as a shield, the men attempted to back into a room where the officers knew they would shoot them if they would submit.
Hayes and Lane, the officers say, confessed to robbing the Bank of Bromide, Okla., last Wednesday.
All except $400 of the $3,400 stolen from the bank was recovered.
Twelve hundred dollars was found in an old coffee can buried in the yard. Hayes took the officers to his home in the hills and revealed to them the hiding place of his share of the loot, $25. The state of Louisiana had offered a reward for the capture of Massey, dead or alive.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 27.—Robbers entered the State Bank of Kinta, Haskell county, Okla., late Thursday night or Friday morning and escaped with $10,000 in Liberty bonds.

Officials to the Kinta band discovered their loss Friday morning.
They reported it today to Eugene P.
Gum, secretary of the Oklahoma Bankers' association, whose headquarters are in the city. According to the report given Secretary Gum, the entire vault was ruined by dynamite, one side of it being completely torn away.

No trace or clew of the robbers has been found.

MAN KILLED BY AUTO

George W. Ward of Steffensville, Mo., Steps in Front of Auto Driver By Lyle Dickey.

George W. Ward, 50, of Steffens-ville, Mo., was fatally injured last night when struck by an automobile driven by W. Lyle Dickey, on Fifteenth street, between Rockwell and Quincy avenues. Eye witnesses say that Ward stepped in front of the moving car. His son was hurted and he died en route to a hospital.

Mr. Dickey stopped his machine as quickly as possible, telephoning for an ambulance from a nearby drugstore.

"Mr. Dickey is known to be a very careful driver by the traffic men of the force," said Chief of Police Charles Allen last night. "After a thorough investigation it is apparent that the accident was unavoidable."

Police were in the process of the death case when it was shown that he had merely lived in Steffensville, Mo.
According to J. H. Strand, manager of the United Employment agency, Ward was living with his son and daughter-in-law on the east side of town.

Through the employment agency Ward secured a job on a farm owned by H. C. Stevens, one-half mile north of Kendall college on December 7, which is thought to have been soon after he came to the state from Missouri.
Later he was employed as janitor at a local hospital.

Efforts to find the dead man's name had been unsuccessful at a late hour last night, according to the manager of the Mowbray undertaking parlor where he was taken.

Liquor Shipped in Bag, EOKLA. Mo., Dec. 27.—Seventy-five quarts of whisky and some alcohol were found in a carload of hay today by Pike county officials.
The hay was billed to John Bohannon, Sayre, Okla.

ITALIANS BLAMED FOR FAKE LIQUOR

New York Detectives Discover Source of Pois-oned Booze.

OFFICERS ON WARPATH

Chicago Starts Probe Into Making of "Coroner's Cocktails" in That City.

DEATH LIST GOES HIGHER

Expect Total of 60 Fatalities in New England—From Wood Alcohol.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Seventy-eight persons have died during the last 48 hours and scores of others are suffering from paralysis and blindness, due to drinking wood alcohol "whisky," according to reports received tonight from seven eastern cities and Chicago.

Local toll of poisonous liquor is the highest in New England, where 62 deaths are recorded. Two women at Chicopee Falls, Mass., and one at Springfield, Mass., are included in this list.

In connection with the New England deaths and six reported in New York city, police, internal revenue officers and agents of the department of justice are seeking Adolph Paranski, importer and commission merchant of this city, who they assert sold 12 barrels of the poisonous liquor. The police charge that the "whisky" was concocted in Paranski's store in Bleeker street.

CHICAGO, Mass., 34 men and two women died in Springfield three men and one woman. In Mass., six men and one woman died. In Hartford, Conn., three persons died of the poison.
Two more to the toll.

Chicago reported eight deaths from drinking of poisonous beverages.

Two deaths were announced at Newark, N. J., by the police.
Three died in Cleveland.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—New York detectives seeking the source of whisky manufactured from wood alcohol which has caused scores of deaths in the east within the last two days, tonight expressed the opinion that hundreds of barrels of the poison liquor were made in this city by a band of Italians and shipped to Connecticut and nearby states. They predicted a number of more soon would be made.

The detectives made this prediction after a raid on what is believed to have been an illicit still on Baxter street, where 11 bottles marked "whisky flavor" and "twix" extractions were seized, containing many whiskies. Many more bottles containing ingredients ordinarily used in the manufacture of Italian and Spanish cordials, also were discovered, according to the police.
There were many bottles labeled "brandy extract." The proprietor of the basement in which the alleged still was located was arrested.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Raymond P.
Decker, Mexican general in New York, issued a statement tonight in which he said a boy was made lame Friday. It became known today, he reportedly by one of their number, who is specially trained to handle weapons, that the gunner, who was serving in the Mexican army, was shot in the hand when he was serving as Christmas gift quarantine.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Dec. 27.—Frank Dansey, a timekeeper for the Mexican gasoline company, was killed and robbed by Mexican bandits while en route to San Antonio to help repair a gas line there. Dansey was shot in the head with which to pay workers in the oil field. The oil company is a Dutch-British concern.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Raymond P.
Decker, Mexican general in New York, issued a statement tonight in which he said a boy was made lame Friday. It became known today, he reportedly by one of their number, who is spec-
the gunner, who was serving in the Mexican army, was shot in the hand
when he was serving as Christmas gift quarantine.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 27.—Mad Moore, recently convicted of the killing of Lemoy D. Hart, a prominent business man of this city, was granted a new trial today by a court of three judges,组成 of the state supreme court, who had earlier denied a writ of habeas corpus filed by Moore's attorney, Charles White.
Moore, who was sentenced to death in the electric chair, was granted a new trial because the evidence did not warrant a second conviction of the woman for murder in the first degree.
